Mr. _____
c/o _____
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. _____:

1. The United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby contracts with you for your services with compensation at the rate of $35.00 for each day, or fraction thereof, in which you are engaged in duties for CIA.
2. Compensation payable hereunder, as an employee of the United States Government, is not subject to retirement deductions, and no leave benefits will accrue to you. You will be entitled to transportation and subsistence expenses while away from your home or permanent place of business in accordance with the rates authorized under the Standardized Government Travel Regulations, as amended. You will not be entitled to overtime pay for hours worked in excess of eight hours in any one day.
3. While in an actual travel status, you will be entitled to reimbursement of travel expenses in accordance with the rates authorized under the Standardized Government Travel Regulations as amended. While in such status, you will be considered engaged in duties for CIA within the meaning of paragraph 1. above.
4. As an employee of the United States Government, you are entitled to the benefits under the United States Employees' Compensation Act of 7 September 1916, as amended, relating to employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties. You are eligible to secure insurance and hospitalization under existing arrangements within CIA.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50 U.S.C. 31 and 32, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

5. It is anticipated that your services hereunder will be required for an approximate period of six weeks. However, the period may be extended by mutual agreement.

STATINTL

Chief, Special Funds Division
